Founders Fujimatsu & Sadako Moriguchi, 1960

Since 1928, Uwajimaya has been more than just a grocery store—it's been a part of the PNW community. From our founder, Fujimatsu Moriguchi, serving fresh fishcakes to local Japanese laborers in Tacoma, WA, we've grown into the largest locally and family-owned Asian grocery retailer in the Pacific Northwest, with three stores in Washington and one in Oregon. Thank you for being part of our story for 97 amazing years.
